

FDLRS MISSION

The mission of the Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System (FDLRS) is to support and enhance exceptional student education programs by providing evidence-based, high-quality professional learning opportunities; integrating assistive and instructional technology; promoting family engagement; and ensuring access to early intervention services.

Disability History & Awareness

In 1975, Congress enacted the Education for All Handicapped Children Act, known today as the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

In 2008, Florida Statutes, Section 1003.4205, entitled Disability History and Awareness Instruction, was signed into law, and requires school districts to designate the first two weeks of October as Disability History and Awareness Weeks. During these two weeks, school districts promote instruction for students in all public schools to expand student knowledge, understanding, and awareness of individuals with disabilities, disability history, and the disability rights movement.

We are proud to participate in promoting awareness of disability history and the contributions of individuals with disabilities and encourage our families to share in raising awareness.

A word from Dr. Antoine Hickman, Executive Director

On behalf of the Department of Exceptional Student Education & Student Services, I want to take this opportunity to thank you for allowing us to meet the needs of our most valuable resources –our students. As a career-long special educator, I have seen both the triumphs and struggles of small, urban, and very large school districts. I have quickly seen in my first few months of working here in Hillsborough County Public Schools (HCPS) the power of community and the impact that parents, teachers, administrators, and support staff have in ensuring our children experience more triumphs.

During the first two weeks in October, we in HCPS are proud to participate in promoting disability history, awareness, and the contributions individuals with disabilities have made in our schools and communities. Disability History and Awareness Weeks will also allow us to recognize and celebrate those who have played a key role in advocating, influencing, and promoting the rights of individuals with disabilities across our nation. I am proud to be an active participant in this important initiative.
